LUCAS DI PASCUALE

Colecciones (2008-2011) es una serie de dibujos hechos con tinta sobre papel. Lucas Di Pascuale recorrió la biblioteca de la Rijksakademie en Amsterdam, la de Jorge Villacorta en Lima, la de varios amigos en Belo Horizonte y la suya propia en Córdoba. Hojeando esos libros se encontró con imágenes que lo sedujeron y decidió copiarlas como si con ese acto fuera posible aprehenderlas y armar así su propia colección. Retrató el trabajo de unos quinientos colegas. Los primeros eran dibujos rápidos, donde se limitaba a reproducir la estructura de los modelos con pincel grueso. A medida que fue avanzando la serie, fue haciéndolos más miméticos y detallistas, e incorporando líneas finas, así como el uso del pincel seco para texturas y volúmenes. Di Pascuale pensó en el dibujo como una escritura y en las ideas de otros artistas como modelos a retratar. Pensó en el retrato como un aprendizaje y en ese aprendizaje como el sentido de su producción.

Colecciones (Collections) (2008-2011) is a set of ink drawings on paper. Lucas Di Pascuale explored the library of the Rijksakademie in Amsterdam, that of Jorge Villacorta in Lima, various friends' in Belo Horizonte, and his own in Córdoba. While examining these books, he stumbled upon images that captivated him, prompting him to copy them as if this act alone would enable him to capture their essence and thereby curate his own collection. He depicted the work of approximately five hundred colleagues. The initial ones were rapid sketches, where he merely sought to mirror the structure of the models using a broad brush. As the series unfolded, he strived to make them more mimetic and intricate, incorporating delicate lines and employing the dry brush technique for textures and volumes. Di Pascuale viewed drawing as a form of writing and considered the ideas of other artists as models to render. He perceived the act of portraiture as a learning journey, and regarded this learning as the central purpose of his work.

LUCAS DI PASCUALE

(CÓRDOBA, 1968)

La práctica artística de Lucas Di Pascuale se despliega entre los límites del dibujo, la escritura y la lectura; entre la práctica editorial y la docente. Su hacer se ve influenciado por las relaciones entre lo singular y lo plural; entre lo íntimo, lo cotidiano, lo público y lo histórico. En los últimos años, su obra aborda cuestiones relacionadas con la copia y la ausencia del original, nutriéndose muchas veces de aspectos autobiográficos o de biografías de su entorno afectivo en los que la escritura, en ocasiones, funciona como disparador. Di Pascuale se interesa en la técnica como concepto y en cierta idea de lo inacabado a partir de fragmentos que propone su producción. El montaje, otra dimensión importante en su trabajo, funciona a su vez como espacio de memoria y de vacío.

Lucas Di Pascuale's practice develops between the limits of drawing, writing and reading; amongst editorial practice and teaching. His work is informed by the connections between the individual and the collective; as well as the intimate, the everyday life, the public and the historical. In recent years, he has directed his work toward concerns centered around the copy and the absence of the original, often drawing on autobiographical aspects or biographies of his affective environment in which writing, on occasion, serves as a trigger. Di Pascuale is interested in technique as a concept and in certain idea of the unfinished based on fragments proposed by his production. Montage, which is another important dimension in his work, functions both as a place of memory and of emptiness.
